UM ANNOUNCES FRESHMAN SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

MISSOULA--

The University of Montana Financial Aids Office recently announced the recipients of freshman scholarships and awards for the 1986-87 academic year. A total of $70,757 was given to 120 entering students from 58 Montana high schools.

The average award was $590, but ten students received $1,000 scholarships. The awards will be given to students in three installments at the beginning of each quarter during the regular academic year. All scholarships are based on academic performance with some awards also based on the applicant's financial need.

The awards include Excellence Fund Scholarships from the UM Foundation; Fox Foundation Fund Scholarships administered by the UM Foundation and established in memory of Mrs. George Fox; Haynes Worthy Student Scholarships administered by the Haynes Foundation and established by Jack Ellis and Isabel Haynes; Hammond Scholarships established by Mrs. Frank B. King in memory of father, Andrew B. Hammond; Long Brothers' Scholarships established by Franklin A. Long and George B. Long; and the James B. McConough Presidential Scholarships administered by the UM Foundation.
